Stand up, get find someone you don't know.
Do introduce yourself and ask...

1. Have you (ever) used Headway? When did you use it for the first time?
2. What's the current methodology used in ELT?
3. How important is homework? For you? For your students?
4. What's your favourite song? Why?

Which do you think it is?

- your favorite song
- your least favorite song
- a song that makes you happy
- a song that makes you sad
- a song that reminds you of someone
- a song that reminds you of somewhere
- a song that reminds you of a certain event
- a song that you know all the words to
- a song that you can dance to
- a song that makes you fall asleep

What is an interactive whiteboard?
What equipment do you need?
Do you think they are good or bad in the classroom? Why?

Pros

- encourage heads up learning
- motivational tools
- save, revisit, recycle
- improve discipline
- save time in class
- empower students

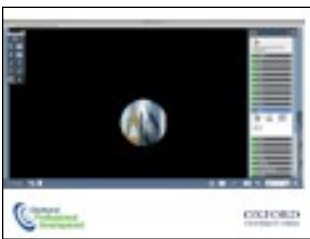

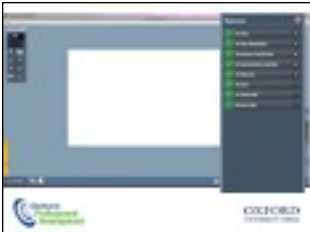

Cons

- encourage a teacher centred classroom
- long time to prepare and plan
- costly for the teacher
- lack of flexibility and variety

Best Practice

- avoid chalk and talk
- involve the students – empower them
- limit IWB use
- move back and forth through slides
- appeal to different learning styles
- avoid alienating students

What's the song?

Talking away
 I don't know what I'm to say
 I'll say it anyway
 Today isn't my day to find you
 Shying away
 I've been coming for love o.k.

A solid black square.

Golden Rules of Homework

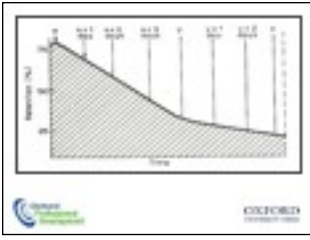

- useful
- relevant, interesting and varied
- different ability/learning style groups
- manageable in terms of time
- no need to focus on a written product
- students can contribute ideas and design their own tasks
- challenging but achievable
- consolidate classwork, it should not replicate it
- tasks which are nearer to real life use of language
